VNR provides capacity-building services to the more than 4,500 nonprofits in the San Fernando Valley, with a particular focus on helping nonprofits with strategic planning. VNR is a “virtual MSO” with a small staff and budget, many partners, and educational workshop offerings at community sites throughout the Valley to minimize travel time for participating nonprofit staff. Most services are offered free or at very low cost since so many of VNR’s client nonprofits are small and have limited resources. It is operated by CSUN with MEND (Meet Each Need with Dignity).
